Lost ships, train wrecks
Faithful broken words
Communication's been let down
Your passive defense
Makes great broken bells

Warn them before this ocean's tide
Gets way too deep

Scratch me and let your nails dig deep
Try to break my skin
Don't expect me to say what you want to hear

Take back all that shit you said
About your faithful past

(Breathe, breathe)

Lost ships, train wrecks
Faithful broken words
Communication's been let down
