I could be wasting all my time
This lecture falls on deaf ears
The repetition accents (the rhythms in my head)
Conversation's over

Inside, you can't wait for them to notice
(You're not around)
That you're not around
And I think I should have tried to find you,
(You're not around)
But you're not around.

I could be wasting all my time
This lecture falls on deaf ears
The repetition accents (the rhythms in my head)
Conversation's over

Anthem angels sing
"End this tonight"

Open wrists again (bound before digging in)
Senseless acts between two sets of broken friends
Twisted ends (act up, played out)
Loveless life you lead
You're washed up, dead now
Top that, freak out
Tell your friends again
Untold but untrue;
This letter's read with nothing new
Translate this code and note that our future is Fiction again
