My life, my life, my life, my life
Yeah, yeah, yeah
My life, my life, my life, my life

Fake love's when your homie give you dap
Smile in your face but he wants your ass clapped
(Fake love)
Fake love's when they never be around
But once you get rich, they all get down
(Fake love)

Fake love's when your friend fuck your bitch
Don't think with his head only think with his dick
(Fake love)
So my friends enemies and my enemies be friends
Don't show no love, don't pretend

50 got Yayo gettin' all this cash
Now all these yes men wanna kiss my ass
But back in the street you ain't help me re-up
Locked up, I had court dates, you never showed up

What the fuck, tell me what you grinnin' at nigga?
If I get killed, my stash, you spendin' that nigga
Some people want nothin' outta life
And some people want it all, let's ball

I see the jealousy and envy when you see me shoppin'
Sapphire watch, got your jaw droppin'
When I move that 8th, you were 7 gram coppin'
You ain't happy for me, you hope that the Feds watchin'

I ain't stoppin', homie I'm number one
Why you schemin' on me, I'm plain and dumb
So when it comes to the point, that you ready to flip I'ma pull out first, and let off my clip, take that

Fake love's when your homie give you dap
Smile in your face but he wants your ass clapped
(Fake love)
Fake love's when they never be around
But once you get rich, they all get down

(Fake love)

Fake love's when your friend fuck your bitch
Don't think with his head only think with his dick
(Fake love)

So my friends enemies and my enemies be friends
Don't show no love, don't pretend

Now your man ain't your man if he extortin' you nigga
And your man ain't your man if he shortenin' you nigga
Listen money talks, and bullshit run marathons
When your money's gone, that's when them hoes gon'

Fake love is when a nigga sets you up
How he knew about your chain when your ching was tucked
You know the type that rats you out, sell you out
Get locked, your man ain't gon' bail you out

You got a brand new whip, your shit is lovely
Yeah it's aight, but it's rims is ugly
Fake friends, show fake love
You know the type of nigga that'll leave you in the club
(Fake love)

Fake love's when your homie give you dap
Smile in your face but he wants your ass clapped
(Fake love)
Fake love's when they never be around
But once you get rich, they all get down
(Fake love)

Fake love's when your friend fuck your bitch
Don't think with his head only think with his dick
(Fake love)
So my friends enemies and my enemies be friends
Don't show no love, don't pretend

My life, my life, my life, my life
My life, my life, my life, my life
