[Superstar Jay:]

Tony Yayo, Superstar Jay...

"Swine Flu Part 2"!

Enter Queens at your own risk!

Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha!

[Female reporter:]

There's a stillness in the air...

In the neighborhood where two blocks seem empty.

You can hear the wind whip through the playground usually crowded with Children.

Signs on school doors: "Closed because of swine flu".

This is Ground Zero for swine flu here in New York.

Queens... has more than half the swine flu cases in the country.

[Male 1:]

Swine flu breeds in pigs... spread then from person to person.

Right now New York City is virtually shut down!

[Female 1]

Schools are closed.

[Male 1:]

This is a virus the world has really never seen before.

[Female 2:]

Libraries and museums... shut down.

Residents wearing masks!
