[intro]

Yeah, you know, its like, ehm - I rap
I got two platinum albums
I do a lotta concerts all over the place
I seen the groupies
They do whatever you say
When you want it, how you want it, and where you want it
But I aint trippin
Cause these are the 90s
So when a freak say to me she loves me
I just say somethin like this

[verse 1]

I say baby, why you wanna do all that?
Sleep with a brother just because I rap
You keep lookin in my eyes, and you just wont stop
All damn night you been on my jock
But Im no fool
Cause youre sprung on my house and my swimming pool
Call me a dog, I got several freaks
When I do my shows I cant get no sleep
Cause you keep knockin at my hotel door
I was there to sleep, and cant get no more
Sleep, so why you wanna wake me up?
When I told you once I dont wanna fuck
So get on, girl, wont you mind your own
Im tryin to sleep, so just leave me alone
Next time I see you, I do my duty
But tonight, I got another hoochie

[chorus: dwayne wiggins]

Hoochie, tryin to be bourgie
But youre nothin but a groupie
Riding on my snoopy

[verse 2]

Im short dog, I wanna take you backstage
And you can read it like its on the front page
You wanna do somebody right

For those who aint famous - not tonight
You do the nba and the nfl
Rappers and singers as well
Keyboard players and the drummer
Its like track and field with just runners
So let me get on the phone and call all my friends
Aint a damn thing changed but the paint on our benz
Get somethin that you cant get from good girls
Care less about a weave or a jherri curl
Cause I know something you dont know
Aint nothin like these groupie hoes
And since tony toni ton? made the track
Get lost, fool, and tell your girl Im back
Sing it

[chorus]

[verse 3]

Get off my lap, cause youre gettin kinda heavy
Lookin at the bed, askin am I ready
Ready for what, sex?
Well, after that, baby, whats next?
We get a house in the suburbs, two-car garage
And every night I get a good massage?
Save that drama for later
And take this number to my skypager
Keep in touch, but dont call too much
When I come back around, you know whats up
Its time to get busy once again
Bring a few partners, cause I got friends
Its goin down like always
Young groupies in the hallways
I got the money, the fame, and all the things you like
So I see you next time when I rock the mic
You

[chorus]
