well he came in to the bar just as our set was ending and he didnt get very far before he tried to catch my eye well Id seen that look before so when the set was over I tried to slip out the door but he was no fool either and he stood there in my way saying things about the music like I like the way that you play, honey, you know I play a little bit too.

wont you let me come up to your room and well sing and well talk a while you know Ive never met a lady quite like you before oh wont you let me come up to your room I said, sorry but its kind of late and anyhow, I dont sleep with strangers anymore.

Well, he looked about twenty-two tryin to act like thirty but it was all that he could do to cover up his surprise he said, listen youve got me wrong I only want conversation, maybe play you some of my songs get to know you a little more.

ah wont you let me come up to your room I said, sorry but its kind of late
and anyhow, I dont sleep with strangers anymore.

No, I dont sleep with strangers anymore Ive had my fill of one-night stands in cheap hotels with dust on the windowsill and you think it might be worth it for a moment while youre touching oh but after you turn away then you know it was all for nothing well then he smiled like a man caught out confessed that hed been hoping he said nothing was gained without a try and surely I had to agree that ships passing in the night could still bring each other comfort I said, maybe,
