this is a song for you
though perhaps some others will hear
when you cant be near now I dont want to play the poet or the clever clown just want to take hold of these feelings and pin them down cause maybe its just a mirage that Im seeing some maverick gleam

a trick of the way the light falls in a dream oh Ive never seen eyes like yours brown in a circle of blue like the sky round the earth when the sun comes shining through and when you turn those eyes to me well I hardly know what to do I see the sky round the earth I see me in a circle of you but maybe its just a mirage that Im seeing some maverick gleam

well you know that Im hard to live with sometimes Im downright mean but you make me feel I could love you love you like youve never seen and I thought it was just a mirage

some maverick gleam
a trick of the way the light falls in a dream

but I think finally this time I can trust the view see how the light holds steady when its coming from you so this is a song for you

when you cant be near
