Why, why?

I'm a junkie, lookin' through my book
I can't be cured, I know I'm hooked
I gotta get out the house, I'm so hard
Chasin' that cat all over the yard

But why do I chase the cat?
Been at it so long since way back
Why would I wanna be a player for life?
Spittin' this game every day and night

I'm talkin', body language, facial expressions
Fuck a flight attendant on a layover session
She's servin' my dick
Fallin' in love but she ain't my bitch

Why do I need to be in between her
Since the first time I seen her?
Hit it from behind, now she wanna be mine
I'm all up in her feline

Why must I chase the cat?
She got ghetto ways, plus she pays, give me my money
Why must I chase the cat?
You see ain't nothin' changed but the game, pimpin'
ain't easy

Bein' settled down just ain't for me
Hold hands, walkin' down the aisle 'bout to get married
I thought that once would never think it again
'Cause I'm a player in the game and I'm playin' to win

It's too many fine hoes to be stuck with one
Too many wet pussies just to be fuckin' one, shit
It's like a disease, like JT in 'Five Heartbeats'
It's impossible for me to be with one freak

You can't live with 'em, you can't live without 'em
I never would trust a bitch and I don't doubt 'em
'Cause I'm a dog that love to chase the cat
If you a fine bitch, I might put my face in that

If you do me first, then I'll do you
And the game jumps off when the bitch is through Hoes nowadays be as bad as us
They love to suck fuck and bust fat ass nuts

Why must I chase the cat?
She got ghetto ways, plus she pays, give me my money
Why must I chase the cat?
You see ain't nothin' changed but the game, pimpin'
ain't easy

Ever since I was a youngster, new to the game
I was goin' to the mall, baby, what's your name
And your number, I never been under Always been a outright player, no wonder

I been through so many hoes in the last 20 years
Bitch gettin' fucked, bring her ass up in here
I keep two or three hoes on deck
Too Short, baby, don't take no shit

I'm a pussy junkie and bitches always want me
But my first love is money
And I'll forever be faithful to her
I won't give her to a bitch just to do her

And play with her kitty
Got some nigga's name tattooed on her titty
I see a gat and jump the fence
My name is Short Dog and I'm a pimp, bitch

Why must I chase the cat?
'Cause you know, she's a ho
Why must I chase the cat?
Whaddya know, she gives me dough

Why must I chase the cat?
She got ghetto ways, plus she pays, give me my money
