Krispy Kreme
And Money Maker Mike
The Christmas song

First thing on my list go figure
It's a brand new John Cena action figure Second thing on my list, guess what
It's a really cute girl with a really cute butt
Mike said Krispy Kreme hold up Mom said you're not allowed to touch a girl's butt until your grown up
That's right, I forgot about that rule
Not allowed to touch butts until you graduate from school
But that's alright, cuz third on my list is a brand new John Cena watch for my wrist
Now we're moving on to item number 4
It's a brand new John Cena poster for my door
Check check it out yall, item number 5
Is a brand new John Cena car that I can drive
Well, I can't really drive it cuz it's too small
But I could if I was maybe like this tall

Christmas, Christmas, come check out my wish list
Have I been a good boy? That's none of your business
I just want some good toys, can I get a witness?
Got all of my homies yelling Christmas, Christmas

Christmas, Christmas, come check out my wish list
Have I been a good boy? That's none of your business
I just want some good toys, can I get a witness?
Got all of my homies yelling Christmas, Christmas

Item number 6 on my list is on lock
Gotta get that super-hot John Cena lunchbox
So tough, the thing is made of steel
No more using brown paper bags for my meal
Item number 7 is like a bite of heaven
I could probly eat like 10 or 11
Checked up in my stocking and guess what I found me
A brand new box of Betty Crocker fudge brownies

Item number 8, player don't hate
It's probably the best toy in the whole state
An item so hot it could make the snow melt
It's a brand new John Cena wrestling belt
Now I gotta think about what I want from grandma
How about a brand new pair of John Cena pajamas?
And one more thing I want even though I already have it
Is the best CD of all time: Illmatic

Christmas, Christmas, come check out my wish list
Have I been a good boy? That's none of your business
I just want some good toys, can I get a witness?
Got all of my homies yelling Christmas, Christmas

Christmas, Christmas, come check out my wish list
Have I been a good boy? That's none of your business
I just want some good toys, can I get a witness?
Got all of my homies yelling Christmas, Christmas
