Back in the ignorance of life
And fears came during the nights
Through walls of rain
While I'm feeling this pain
Forever you fall and no ground to claim

The bull of doubt batters its way
A boy discovers his play
And tries to find the crimson king
With eyes insane
Forever you fall and no ground to claim

When trouble comes your soul to try
You find acquaintance just stand by

For now the fears have disappeared
We kill the doubts as if not here
Soon be revealed
The final page
The broken past
A new day at last!
