It's sad to think about the way
We used to think of how it'd be
Now, it seems like everyone's just so wasted
Don't you have something better to do?
Now contrary to what you believe
We spent the last month not making headway
Yelling out phrases that your soul can't pay
Could it be that it's time to change this?
Could it be that it's time to change this?

So we can find ourselves
and fight our mediocrity
Take your life in your hands
and show them all what you mean
Wipe away all of your tears
and don't let them see you bleed
Let them see you bleed
Let them see you bleed
(Raise your hands)
Because it's gonna hurt now
(Raise your hands)
When you wave goodbye
(Wave)
Bye

The time has come
The time is now
I'll show you when
I'll show you how
Don't you think about letting them pull you down
The scars won't be worth it
We make it real
We'll make it all worth it

We spent the last month not making headway
Yelling out phrases that your soul can't pay
Could it be that it's time to change this?
Could it be that it's time to change this?

My hands are not moving
My eyes are glazed over

(My eyes are glazed over
My hands are not moving)
My hands are not moving
My eyes are glazed over
(My eyes are glazed over
My hands are not moving)
My hands are not moving
My eyes are glazed
(My eyes are glazed
My hands are not moving)
My hands are not moving
My eyes are glazed
(My eyes are glazed
My hands are not moving)

So we can find ourselves
and fight our mediocrity
Take your life in your hands
and show them all what you mean
Wipe away all of your tears
and don't let them see you bleed
Let them see you bleed
Let them see you bleed
(Raise your hands)
Because it's gonna hurt now
(Raise your hands)
When you wave goodbye
(Wave goodbye)
Goodbye, goodbye
I'll never wave goodbye
(Wave goodbye)
Goodbye, goodbye
I'll never wave goodbye

Goodbye
