Catch a falling memory girl,
Hold and hold it to your heart,
If you believe in prayers and dreams,
Then i swear just breathe and i will be there,

somewhere in the rain,
That's where you'll find me,
Some where in the rain thats where i'll be.

Stop did you whisper girl,
say, say you need me now,
if storms begin to stay,
and clouds are turning grey,
i'll breathe and blow them away, in the rain thats where you'll find my,

in the rain thats where i'll be.
