(Georgesco D'Anjou)

Mama told me stay away from the candy man
If he won't take a no, kick his love make him understand

It turns him on to turn the other cheek
And it turns him on to bathe your beautiful feet
His idol got crucified

With criminals by his side

So when he looked me right in the eye he said
I'm gonna love you, love you, love you, love you, love you

Like Jesus, you know what I mean sex machine

Jesus, you know what I mean

Follow this man, you will drown

There's no walking on the water

Swallow his word, kiss his jewels

He'll make you suffer sucker

It turns him on to watch you throw stones

Whip him hard enough so you can hear him moan

When your soul is burning deep inside

And your chained right by his side

He's gonna look you right in the eye and say

you

Like Jesus, you know what I mean sex machine

Jesus, you know what I mean

You know what I mean sex machine
