(Georgesco D'Anjou)
I always got no money
I don't think it's so funny
Nobody calls me honey
Makes me feel so sad
Yeah, I'm feeling sad
You got a hole in your shoe
You're the one they wanna screw
You wish you knew Kung Fu
I think I'm going mad
Yeah, it's making me mad
Robin Hood where are you now?
'Cause Batman's a fag
And he's starting to sag
You know the devil's in everyone of us
I get my dinner from a trash can
Mad, it's making me mad, mad, mad
My life is making me mad
When everyday's just the same
You can't remember your name
A stranger to yourself
It makes me feel so bad
Yeah I'm feeling bad
You meet a girl in a bar
You get to make it in a car
She says "Baby please"
Now you got a disease
Too bad
Marilyn where are you now?
Madonna's a gag
And she's starting to sag
Misery's in every one of us
I get my women from a men's mag
Mad
I get my dinner from a trash can
Mad
