[Bob Marley]

O-oh, wo-o!
When I was just a little child (little child),
Happiness was there awhile (there awhile).
Then from me, yeah, it slipped one day, yeah!
Happiness, come back, I say.
'Cause if you don't come, I've got to go lookin'
For happiness.
Well, if you don't come, I've got to go lookin',
Lord, for happiness - happiness.

Said that - said, I'm-a hurtin' (inside). And it's ...
I'm hurtin' - I'm hurtin' deep inside. O God, now.
Oh, hear my cry, hear my cry:
Yeah, my, my, my, my, my, my, my, my cry.

Been together like school children (school children),
Then you hurt me just in vain (just in vain).
O Lord, I'm your weary child (child);
Oh, happiness, come back awhile.
'Cause if you don't come, I'm gonna go lookin'
For happiness. The road is dangerous!
(If you don't come) I've got to go lookin'
For happiness - 'appiness.
Said, I'm - don't you know I'm hurtin' - hurtin' inside;
Oh, I'm hurtin' - ooh yeah, ooh yeah.

That's the one who loves!
O-ooh, feel the pain, feel the pain!
That's the one who loves;
Feel the pain! Feel the pain!
Been together, been together - /fadeout/
