"Yesterday"

Visit "Yesterday" on MotoLyrics.com

Looking back on the days gone by,
When no matter how hard we tried,
Can't let go of the world that's passed us by,
And all of the reasons why,

Are we lost in yesterday,
What if those things had gone our way,
Wondering what might have been,
Is keeping us away from what's within,

Looking back on what's just went wrong,
Has taken us far too long,
Hanging on to the only threads we know,
Oh why can't we just let go

Are we lost in yesterday,
What if those things had gone our way,
Wondering what might have been,
Is keeping us away from what's within,

Are we lost in yesterday,
What if those things had gone our way,
Wondering what might have been,
Is keeping us away from what's within
