I drove from nowhere to relive my past
Felt like an outsider, feel the same now
Its funny how you get so much further
When you feel like an alien

Thank God I was never a thinker
I would have never have found my gap
I'm starting to see now where I'm going
But I feel like an alien yeah!

Someone was calling me and I felt that it was you
Someone was calling me and I felt that it was you
Someone was calling me and I felt that it was him
Oh! Someone was calling me

One step forwards, two steps back
Remembering times on my back
Down at cheddar res, what a crack
And I feel like an alien yeah!

Someone was calling me and I felt that it was you
Someone was calling me and I felt that it was you
Someone was calling me and I felt that it was him
Oh! Someone was calling me

I feel like an alien, I feel like an alien
I feel like an alien, I feel like an alien
