When you look to the past
You won't miss what you're missing, no, no
Thank the heavens above these days are gone, oh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Keep good faith on the shelf
Use it when you're not well, yeah, yeah
All the mistakes that you've made
Don't matter now, no

Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?

Don't wear your heart on your sleeve
Too many lives to retrieve, yeah
Mother nature will help you if you let her, oh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Keep back a bit for yourself
Keep up with faith on the shelf
Safe under your wing, it's just a silly thing

Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Get up, get down
Running around the town
Round and round in your head
Gotta rest your sleepy head, oh yeah

So when you look to the past
You won't miss what you're missing, yeah, yeah
Thank the heavens above these days are gone

Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?

Do you know what your future will be?
Do you know what your future will be?

Do you know what your future

Your future

Your future

Your future
