Don't.

Don't fall for this.

From the first kiss, we'd start to lose,

lose who we are.

Don't let the tides of your heart rise, or they'll tear you apart.

But wrong, never reach for my hand.

Never let me come near you, for I fear you'll regret.

One day, that I first kissed you.

One day, that I let myself hold you.

What I told you all I feel, please don't

BERTRANDE:

I hear each word you say, for I feel them each night.

Yet, if everything is wrong, why does something feel right, I cannot watch you go.

Despite the lie, our love is truer than we know.

MARTIN:

Don't

BERTRANDE:

This is not wrong

MARTIN:

But for how long?

This is too good, too good to last.

BERTRANDE:

Don't.

MARTIN:

Noones this strong.

BERTRANDE:

Here you belong. This is your land, this is your past

MARTIN: BERTRANDE:

For, I'm martin For all our lives

guerre you brought the rain

MARTIN:

Don't

BOTH:

There is noone who dare, please don't.

Never reach for my hand, never let me come near you,
for I fear you will regret.

One day, that I first kissed you,

One day, that I let myself hold you,

what I told you all I feel.

MARTIN:

Please don't!

BERTRANDE:

Come my love, just one kiss, one kiss, before we say . .
. goodbye.
