"Come follow me", says a voice by the sea "and I'll rearrange,
Even make it strange, the way things used to be"
[x2]

So say goodbye, say goodbye
For what you need is found in the heart of Me

You thought you'd wait until you died but eternity resides
In the One who's calling your name standing on the shore
I know there's nothing you'd want more
I know there's nothing you'd want more

So say goodbye, say goodbye
For what you need is found in the heart of Me
[x2]

How'd you think it was gonna be
This is how it's supposed to be
How'd you think it was gonna be
When you came and you followed Me?
[x2]

So say goodbye, say goodbye
For what you need is found in the heart of Me

So say goodbye, say goodbye
