All those trails leads to anywhere else nothing's gonna keep from me gettin' away every situation that I've never been through is gonna be the sacred path to you

Livin' on the hope of about anything else lonesome valley or the city street lights Picking up our years, whatever passes by even if it's not right or half alive

I went down down down
down to the rainaway town down doooooown
just a little insane but ahead of the game

Fed up with the people I use to hold dear looking for reaction in a dead end tear everybody's telling me that I should give it up but I feed on broken dreams alot

Only if you know me can you help me you say lookin' for the surface always in the wrong way better hold on to whatever you have you say it's easier if you don't have it all

I went down down down
down to the rainaway town
down doooooown
just a little insane but ahead of the game

And all that i found was the other way around don't come to near don't feed my fear now everything's been said

Just a little insane but ahead of the game

I went down down down
down to the rainaway town
down doooooown

(just a little insane but ahead of the game)
just a little insane but ahead of the game
(just a little insane but ahead of the game)
just a little insane but ahead of the game
(just a little insane but ahead of the game)
just a little insane but ahead of the game
(just a little insane but ahead of the game)
just a little insane but ahead of the game
(just a little insane but ahead of the game)
just a little insane but ahead of the game
(just a little insane but ahead of the game)

Just a little insane but ahead of everything
