you meant the world to me I hade to set you free still you couldn't see what it was about but you don't even care
you just stop and stare you pulled me in my arm and said come on

it's been a lonesome time I've had a busy mind but you know my kind I won't be there you don't even care
you punched me in my chest and said go on

but I am not the case
in so many ways
I shouldn't be around
when you are there
but I no longer care
my mind is not aware
they say I'll get it back
but it's not there

if you are half as mean as I have ever been you should get me while you have a shot
you slapped me in my face and said you're wrong
