You fly in your dreams
Wake up in concrete Its not what it seems Something is nothing

Wait, stop, abort everything
Wait, stop, abort everything

I'll carry you up the road leads to nowhere I'll watch as you burn its out of control now

Wait, stop, abort everything
Wait, stop, abort everything

You're one with the mist
cloaking the mountain top You're gonna be missed
now that your time is up

Wait, stop, abort everything
Wait, stop, abort everything
Wait, stop
Wait
