Waking up in the middle of a sentence tearing out whatever I remember last night is still drinking whiskey at the end of the bed passing out in the stairs avoiding elevators passing out all my internet passwords everybody loves to hate me and then it's always the same

I will never love you I will only fear you but I want you to love me
won't you love me and let me be Looking up to the crowd, the noise is aggravating the sweat runs down to my eyes everybody's waiting last night is beating steel drums in the back of my head

Drinking stolen alcohol and hiding in the toilet stay away from the show you know you'll only spoil it tonight all eyes are looking for me, at least in my head

I will never love you I will only fear you
but I want you to love me
won't you love me and let me be

I stand alone, I stand alone watch the world go on and on yesterday is always wrong tomorrow - only hope

I stand alone, I stand alone
watch the world go on and on I raise my glass and go to sleep
I wake up
