(Rebecka Törnqvist/Paul Svenre)

Baby, do you mind, may I come in I'll be only a minute, yes please, I'll have some gin Baby, do you mind, may I sit down?
Sure there's a reason, for me coming around I just wanna get a clue, why I was so hung up on you, Baby, do you mind

Baby, do you mind, This won't take long
You see I'm trying to figure out where we went wrong I just wanna see what made me fall, well I don't understand, if this was all you had to give up charms and looks, I should have stayed home with my books, Baby, do you mind solo

Baby, do you mind, no I can't stay I made a big mistake, but that's OK I guess I hoped to find the core of why we failed, but Baby here's the score:
The only thing I came to find is that love can really make you blind, Baby, do you mind
The only thing I came to find is that love can really
make you blind, Baby, do you mind
The only thing I came to find is that love can really
make you blind, Baby, do you mind
Baby, do you mind me saying so...
