At last it ended, this awkward day

You're sleeping now by my side

I said I'm finally here to stay and

Everything is fine, everything here is just fine

Now that you're mine

Forever more

Let's shut the windows and lock the door

Let peace and quiet remain

Serenity will rule once more

Everything is fine, everything here is just fine

Now that you're mine

Forever more

Listen to the sounds far away

Hear the song that says come what may

Listen to the night and stay put where you are

Acting the ever-after part, happily will connect

No more sore and tormented hearts 'cause

Everything is fine, everything here is just fine

Now that you're mine

Forever more

Take a stand and make an effort

No more fairy tales

Make this place a peaceful resort

It's signed and sealed

Listen to the sounds far away

Hear the song says come what may

Listen to the night and stay put where you are

Everything is fine, everything here is just fine

Now that you're mine

Forever more
