Who do I have to be to make you notice me?
Oh, it seems it seems, I blend right into the scenery

Im your chameleon, camouflaged from your eyes
I couldnt do better if I tried to hide Chameleon, I can change the color of my skin to fit the world youre livin in

What do I have to do to get some attention from you You cant see, cant see all the many things I can be

Must be a chameleon, another leaf in another tree
I might as well be anybody Chameleon, who do you need me to be? Red, yellow, oink, or green?
See me
Deluge (music by Wayne Shorter) Why cant you remember all your dreams, why is it time ran short, the years are lost to you?
Hey, its not time to be searching in the past, you must still focus life forward, time moves fast Why do you always let the others choose your fate it is not theirs to choose its up to you
