

Mary Lorson & Saint Low

"Friends, I Have Been Drinking"

Visit "Friends, I Have Been Drinking" on MotoLyrics.com

Friends I have been drinking, and there's something you should know
But I sense some condescension from our host, so let's just go
You and I have things in common, at 25 we moved to London
With an overheavy suitcase and a tragedy to leave behind Chorus: but we've gotta let it go, cause for all we know, we're not the only ones And you're giving it a go/ Could you take it slow? /I know you won't.
Friends I have been drinking, and this is what I see Today's love can become tomorrow's villain when you rush these things
In London the girls are wearing gogo boots without the tights
Oh they are so pretty and they're in for some bumpy rides with the likes of you Chorus
Friends I have been linking, with somebody you don't know
And it's safe to say that this will prove unhealthy but here I go

Visit Mary Lorson & Saint Low page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.