Verse One [Mashonda]: Every time you were around me baby Boy you know you drive me crazy And I really wanna be your lady That's all baby, nothin' else I been watchin' you for a few years Every time you come around, I just stare There is somethin' I gotta make clear All I want you to do is Chorus Hold me, hold me (hold me) Show me that you do (that you do) Wanna get to know me too Hold me, no more lonely I'm with you (I'm with you baby) Verse Two: We been spendin' more time together Gettin to know each other better Baby I am down for whatever Slowly fallin love Cause you treated me like a princess Wit you, don't have to worry 'bout stress And I really have to confess You're the best baby Chorus Verse Two [Kanye West]: See none of the girls know me, but they all want me So when they start runnin' they mouths just hold me And keep me in your prayers so these naysayers Can't make it through out layers I say somethin' to warm you up like California I'm from the Chi, you from the Apple like Fiona I'm feelin like Prince when he met Appolonia You feelin kinda tense cause what ya friends have warned ya Man, they hatin', if they ain't hatin, they insinuatn' You remember when we first start datin'? We worked at the mall They said we like a guy with no muscles "Oh they'll never work out at all" And I was just that broke dude that worked next door But can please donate some sex to the poor? Baby, I see it One day, we'll be drivin' in them crazy whips I ain't gonna be workin' this grave shift 'til I'm 86 I ain't gonna be pushin' this broom I ain't gonna be stayin' in my friend's room That's only one bedroom that I call my lair We was V.I.P. Very Imaginary Playas See why we, smoke our weed You never let these rumors come between you and me And that's good lookin' Plus you good lookin' Plus the hood lookin' So hold me down like B.I.G. held Brooklyn [Bridge]: Hold me down, don't go away (don't go) Give me your love a million more days In your arms, I wanna stay (stay) I always wanna be with you Anything you want me to do Baby you know I'll do it for you (you) (Hold me, show me that you do)
