Indian summer Abilene

You were new in town, I was nineteen

And sparks flew

They called us crazy behind our backs

"Romantic fools" we just let them laugh

Because we knew it may be a long shot

We may be lonely down the line

But loves knows no reason

And I won't let them make up my mind

Chorus

My love is riding on this dark horse baby

My heart is saying it's the lucky one

And it's true color's gonna shine through someday

If we let this

Let this dark horse run

Stars are brighter in a desert sky

No need to wonder or to justify where this will lead

I wear your locket - our picture inside

Inscriptions says, "The joys in the ride"

And I believe something so scared

Is something worth this kind of fight

Love knows no patience

You can't please everyone, not all of the time

Repeat Chorus

Instrumental

Repeat Chorus (twice)
