Everything's gonna be alright boys
Help is on the way
Hold your head up high now
There's no need to cry now
We're not runnin' anymore

Leave the politics behind boys
They're not workin' anymore
There's so much more at stake here
It's make or break here
Haven't we been here before?
C'mon
Tell me what we're waiting for?

You gotta remember
Oh you don't have to be afraid
You still have the freedom to learn
And say what you wanna say
You gotta remember
No don't let 'em take away
The land we call
The home of the brave

Who sings the song of the people
You don't hear it anymore
I heard it late last summer
To the beat of a different drummer
It never sounded quite like that before

So you're trying to shake this feeling
That trouble's right outside your door
You lie awake each dark night
Like a time bomb wound up too tight
A storm in waiting, just offshore
Oh c'mon
Tell me what we're waiting for

You gotta remember
Oh you don't have to be afraid
You still have the freedom to learn
And say what you wanna say
You gotta remember

No don't let 'em take away
The land we call
The home of the brave

You gotta remember
Oh you don't have to be afraid
You still have the freedom to learn
And say what you wanna say
You gotta remember
No don't let 'em take away
The land we call

Oh you don't have to be afraid
You still have the freedom to learn
You gotta remember
The land we call
The home of the brave
