Well, there's a light in your eyes
That guiding my way to your doorstep
And your voice called my name
With a sound that I've never known

I was a kid in a comic book world
Looking for answers
When out of the darkness she came

Like a cat on the prowl in the middle of the night
Doesn't care if it's late, doesn't matter if it's right
And I laugh when I think
I may never have knocked on your door

Last night
You turned a frightened little boy into a man without shame
Last night
We tore the hands off the clock and it read just the same

Last night
I had a crazy little dream and you turned it all around
Last night
We took a chance, we shook it up and now the world's upside down

All the fire in your heart
And the heat of your touch I'll remember
And you're dancing like a flame
Perfection in motion

It was the masterpiece from the start
Only you and I could have rendered
And I'll never be the same

I'm a cat on the prowl in the middle of the night
Doesn't care if it's late, doesn't matter if it's right
And I laugh when I think
I may never have knocked on your door

Last night

You turned a frightened little boy into a man without
shame
Last night
We tore the hands off the clock and it read just the same

Last night
I had a crazy little dream and you turned it all around
Last night
We took a chance, we shook it up and now the world's
upside down

Like a cat on the prowl in the middle of the night
Doesn't matter if it's late, doesn't matter if it's right
'Cause I laugh when I think
I may never have knocked on your door

Last night
You turned a frightened little boy into a man without
shame
Last night
We tore the hands off the clock and it read just the same

Last night
I had a crazy little dream and you turned it all around
Last night
We took a chance, we shook it up and now the world's
upside down

Last night, ooh, whoa
Last night, whoa
