I don't believe, it's happened to me
Crawling back into your hopeless world
I don't mind, cause it's all the same
And now we're face backwards, with nothing to gain

Is there something made of nothing left for me?
I can't hold the hand of who won't let me breathe
Call my name through the trees and stain my pride
A world that's made of nothing still lies to me

It's all the same, to you it will feel good
But I'm at the end
I don't mind, cause my switch is on
And I'm not the one whos feeling so used

Is there something made of nothing left for me?
I can't hold the hand of whom won't let me breathe
Call my name through the trees and stain my pride
A world that's made from nothing still cries for me

So now you found the reason
So now you found the truth
Cold in bed you start weeping
Wake from dream and find it's real

Crawling back into your hopeless world
I don't mind, cause my switch is on
I am not the one who's feeling so used

Is there something made of nothing left for me?
I can't hold the hand of who won't let me breathe
Call my name through the trees and stain my pride
All that's made of nothing still cries for me.
