Intro:

Greetings give thanks for life
Give thanks for the people of the world
My Lord, my Lord, my Lord

Verse 1:

How many souls you're trying to hide
In a world of elusion that's covering your mind
Rasta show you something good, brothers in the wood
When you open your mind, you discover the sign
That there's something you're longing to find

Chorus:

It's the miracle of love, that's take away your pain
It's the miracle of love, when it comes your way again

Verse 2:

Who is the night that covers up your fear
Tender is the one that wipes away your tear
There must be no humanity, why people act so viciously
They say the greatest power can hurt the most dangerously
Brothers in the woods, Rasta show you something good
When you open your heart, you can make the new start
When your crumbling world falls apart

Chorus

Verse 3:

Teach them, miracle, miracle, miracle, miracle
As I say, brothers in the wood
Rasta show you something good
When you open your mind you discover the sign
That there's something you're longing to find

Chorus
