Conquer through ashes of nuclear flame
Unleashing a pest on the world
Manifest thoughts of devastation
The journeys about to unfold

Given power over a fourth of the earth
To kill with famine and plague
With nightmare slowness the seals are loosed
Judgement awaits your death

Violence is death without physical force
Twisting like knives in your spine
Colliding with fears of extermination
A pale horse beginning its ride

Rising out of the mist
Four horses approaching you
Breathing pestilent winds

Bringing their nuclear fire

The rivers turn to blood
We're gonna face the wrath
Predictions of our fate in books of the past
With just a single touch
The holy lands destroyed
Vengeance casted down

War among all the powers that rule
Spreading famine and plague
Broken seals unleashing their wrath
By the sword he will be slain

With the power of all the earth
Killing with famine and plague
Prophecy has sealed your fate
Judgement awaits your death
