Distraught and still awake you acquire enough strength To hop in the car and shut up and drive and get away Drove off in the distance into the sunset when you reach the cliff Punch it and run quick

Flying through the air it hits some jagged rocks the impact causes it to crush Even I can't believe the change that takes place when the car is nothing Flaming fuselage scattering like shrapnel Watching it reminds me of the time the house caught on fire Arsonist was caught red handed jailed for life he's the fucking crook

So
Can't you tell cant you see that thanks to me
Can't you tell cant you see that thanks to me
I fixed it all
As stupid as it sounds I wish I didn't do it but hey things you do to get money There's nothing much more I can do or say except give up

Can't you tell cant you see that thanks to me
Can't you tell cant you see that thanks to me
I fixed it all
