Is there a lesson to be learned today since you say you're here to stay You're the promise that said would stick and wanted to make the band much better but it didn't turn out that way you turned out to be a dick

You show no respect to others you don't appreciate anything anybody does you will be marked by a loss of composure and become the absurd ridiculous jerk you truly aren't a loss

Make it simple but sweet you don't fit the picture
Seeming to not care about the band
And never took it serious enough you use people
And take them for granted $\tilde{f}\hat{A}\hat{c}\hat{a},-\tilde{A},\hat{A}!$ this will never happen again!!!

You show no respect to others you don't appreciate
composure and become the absurd ridiculous jerk you
truly aren't a loss

There is always a lesson to be learned and that lesson is leadership sorry But your getting burned scorched and torched shot down and kicked to the curb sayonara sucker going, going, gone like the wind you drift off and will never make a return

Make it simple but sweet you don't fit the picture
Seeming to not care about the band
And never took it serious enough you use people
And take them for granted $\tilde{f}\hat{A}\hat{c}\hat{a},-\tilde{A},\hat{A}!$ this will never happen again!!
