Making the cuts with that knife
I know its wrong but it feels so right

Razor blade homemade confessional Set back and rewind the stitching shows the bounds We will have to take and make them strong and sound decisions

Is there someone who cares
Is it the thought of being loved or the thought of being hated Whatever it is rejection is the sedation of the motivation
Of which it will happen and become the controlling decapitation

Razorblade confessional
Take my thoughts for yours and get endless gore Don't even consider or reconsider its not the way to go
And its not mine either so please don't go

I don't want to be misleading I just want to be that razorblade confessional
And go inside those deep inner workings of yours (whisper)
