Ignorance is bliss (2x)
Replace the broken smiles with shattered tears and let the fear melt away
Locked and blocked in the lonely cell where there's twisted smiles and lonely fate

The cellblock is a room Where you come across many Wrongfully evicted and the wrongfully accused Innocent until proven guilty the unfortunate rot in the cells dark depressed Tranquil alone

Your good for nothing you're the yours truly you're the murder she wrote the disturbed blurry message full of fury Straightjacket of society the clippings out of the paper prove that you're the caper the one that they are all after and there's no telling how when or where but you will be caught in no time I swear

Most will regret and be like sure is no place like home and want to replace the broken smiles with shattered tears and start over but its too late when its game over and your left hanging out to dry and the sun burns you away like a hot summer night or a cold winter day its all the same in the cellblock welcome Your good for nothing you're the yours truly you're the murder she wrote the disturbed blurry message full of
Straightjacket of society the clippings out
of the paper prove that you're the caper the one that
they are all after and there's no telling how when or

Replace the broken smiles with shattered tears and let
the fear melt away
Ignorance is bliss (2x)
