theres never been a time when the world was at peace ten thousand yrs of bloodshed and gross atrocities a legacy of suffering, a legacy of pain a legacy of warfare thats never going to change if u dont believe me check ur history every kingdom, culture and ruling dynasty it brought them to their power then brought them to their knees a never ending cycle of murder rape and greed we can hope for change but its never going to stop as u listen to this song more bombs are being dropped its a horrible view of what we have in store prepare urself people for another world war we dont stand a fuckin chance the power of these weapons enhanced incinerated turned to dust technology has given us this is the future we face no ones going to win this race leaders u cannot trust this is what theyve given us no way out!

a horrid view of what we have in store prepare urself for third world war theres one good thing thats for sure there will be no fourth world war the human race will be no more u kno we had it coming!
