

Toxic Narcotic "Melting Pot"

Thrown inside this so called melting pot pressed against the walls, the spoon don't hit this spot crushed up, blackened, burned by the walls we rot you try to mix it up but separations what you got the way it looks from here, youth's filled with fear it's how it looks from here, the mounting storm front The way it looks, who's at the helm, who steers? no matter who's in power, oppression turns the gears steal, rape, oppress - blame it on the next you guess what's best - but youre always fucking wrong again- dont try to reach me keep on grabbin - but it aint free brainwashed school - they try to teach me what's to be done before we all crash head first into the wall is all it takes to wake up and realize who's victimized - not you or the man the almighty dollar in demand - here's the plan nothing but confrontation Fueled by distrust and misinformation keep em fighting and watch disintegration Keep them down, no win Situation!
