no compromise, outright reject your excuses, lies, responsible for neglect cause the drastic decay has begun to infect what you thought was okay all fucking wrecked standing alone, as the the future reigns to stain what's home with no control, as the slimy resin takes it's toll Capitol - Lies, to insure the system keeps us poor Everyone dies, grinding at the schemes to feed them more and more
I'm justified, for all that's done to reverse the tide Aware and unaware can collide
To expose the fact, there's no place to hide

Shit's fucked, just watch the world die Cause you can, cause the man's not tired of your cry till silent run the gears of motoring change Crippled by the overbearing scum we create There's no "just in case", upon us is waste I don't wanna hear it cause it can't be replaced look around see you fucked your world up All the things you do finally caught up with you Come on, no need to consider this It's not our fight it's for environmentalists Wrong you gluttonist scum.
Segregat, separate, delay your doom impending fate Thought youre safe, safe are few, find out who youve been sold out to Perpetuate the company, kill it off tree by tree Rape, burn, infecting it, profit while we live in shit Buy some time, let others fight the uphill climb Too late for us there's no sense in even trying Forfeight, scum creator you succumb Into it, unsaddle or battle till done Caught amongst the politics of throwing rocks and swinging sticks Goneis our last chance to fix, you stupid fucking hypocrites
Futures all a heavy ball wrapped around your neck you fall Ball sinked, to it youre linked, finding out we'll be extinct.
