davey, wakes wearing a frown, he knows that she's around he's in his dressin' gown, down & davey davey, dreams of days gone by, makes davey wanna cry
he weeps and wonders why since he tied the knot, it's what davey got wife of woe, all aggro why, why, why, why, oh, oh, oh, oh she makes davey's days so blue oh, oh, oh, oh

these days of davey's, davey's, these days of davey's these, daveys
days of daveyys

davey, davey's days are days so glum, how did davey be so dumb what the bleedin' eck's become of davey davey, the memories of what he had, make davey discontent and sad a lost and lonely lad

since he tied the knot... dave the nut made a big mistake, when he cut the wedding cake

we all said at your peril, but davey wed a she devil monday... his days were gone, the gormless goon, when he went on his honeymoon grief and pains, davey says, is what remains of davey's days
