Bored at a party Saturday night looking at Tupperware, in came a chick who made me quickly glad I was th
there,
how could I get the courage to ask her for a date?
Twas such a task for me to ask by then it was too late

[Chorus:]

Howza bouta... Howza Bouta, oooo she drives me crazy howza bouta, howza bouta kiss baby!

Why am I such a whimp I thought a soft and skinny puff
For me to ask a kiss from her was difficult & tough

Right that's it I decided to confront the lass,
I started shakin at the knees & tried to make a pass
[Chorus]

I lose my bottle everytime I see a girl I like I start talkin jibberish & she says "on yer bike" there must be something I can do a kiss would make my day
but everytime my gob opens I don't know what to say [Chorus]
