"Poor Davey"

There was Davey, there was Davey,
There was Davey, Happy Davey
His girlfriend's gone, his girlfriend's gone away, ay ay ay ay...
All he wants is a room with the stars looking down
across Davey,
The sun and the moon and the sky high are just fine for
poor Davey,
There's nothing left, there's nothing left,
There's nothing left to see for poor Davey...

He wants to be, he wants to be,
He wants to be alone...
Why did she love him so? Why did she have to go?
Poor Davey doesn't know, now Davey's all alone...
She did upset, she did upset,
She did upset Davey, Davey, Davey,
He won't forget, he won't forget, not Davey...
