Yesterday, Huey's lips were smiling
Yesterday, when Huey was around

She would never have no fear
when she knew Huey was ere'
She still hears the sound...

Yesterday, Huey's voice a calling
Yesterday, Help me Huey cries
The day that Huey dies.

When the night grows cold and the wind blows cruelly A HA
then biting lonely chill goes through me
And it feels so bad, so sad that OOOEE A HA
Shes never gonna have what she had with Huey.
Yesterday, She & Huey laughing
Yesterday, a life with Huey's charms
a life in Huey's arms

and the night grows cold...

[Guitar Bit]

Yesterday, Huey's heart was beating
Yesterday, she still had Huey
Yesterday, she will keep repeating
Yesterday, 'Bring Huey back to me'
'Bring me back Huey'

When the night grows cold...
