And we're walking on broken diamonds
Blinded by their light
In a world of splintered fragments
Careering through our lives

Infatuation

And we're walking on broken diamonds
Blinded by their light
In a world of splintered fragments
Careering through our lives

And we're walking on broken diamonds
Blinded by their light
In a world of splintered fragments
Careering through our lives

Now it ain't easy
And I know that you really try
Although nothing can save us
Our love is a star in the sky

Insinuation
Reputation

We're picking up the pieces
We're picking up the pieces
All the little pieces

I've got you and you've got me
You've got me, you've got me
Begging on my knees

Infatuation

We're walking on broken diamonds
Blinded by their light
