I'm sorry I'm late I was delayed in time
Having a last supper with some friends of mine

???

The monolithic face is the quantum phase
Said these war merchants have seen better days
I don't break the ice, I melt it
I don't open doors, I smash them down
I don't wanna be what you want me to be
If you wanna see some fun just hang around

Here they are between A and B
Here I am between one and three
Alien. Alien. Alien. Alien.

Concave nose, electric blue gaze
Tubular ears with one square face
I don't break the ice, I melt it
I don't open doors, I smash them down
I don't wanna be what you want me to be
If you wanna see some fun just hang around

I never leave and walk around
I look ???
The alien way to every word you say
Is an inspiration to an uninspired day
Black is black, white is white
Life is life from nine 'til five
My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
I don't break the ice, I melt it
I don't open doors, I smash them down
I don't wanna be what you want me to be
If you wanna see some fun just hang around
I don't break the ice, I melt it
I don't open doors, I smash them down
I don't wanna be what you want me to be
If you wanna see some fun just hang around

Here you are between A and B
Here I am between one and three

My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
My eyes searched like spotlights
