(Bennett)

I am here faor all to see
One heart, one soul, one shadow
I can see the way it was before
I know where I long to be Going in after coming round
I've seen you there
Now and then I recall the sound

You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air
You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air

I can read between the lines
But you don't need to follow
Now it's here, I know that it is pure
I can feel you making signs
Wait for me, I'll be coming through
You've ssen me there
Tell me when I can reach for you

You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air
You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air

In the air...

I know why you're at my side
I'm looking for tomorrow
No-one here could ever give me more

Show me you can't be denied
I find you in a pool of light
I've seen you there
Never moving beyond my sight

You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air
You're a dreamchild
I'm aware
See the dreamchild
In the air

In the air...

One heart
One soul
One shadow
In the air.
