Good
Morning
Universe

Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I'm feeling good today

Come with me, come with me
Open up your minds and see
He intoxicates me on this neon world
Can take you far away

Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I'm feeling good today
Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I've been a long, long way

I'm back from Mars
And my starship's a jungle (It's a jungle)
I'm hopelessly lost but I don't care
I'm crashing cymbals in outer space
For all the Aliens to hear

I gotta find you in a chariot of fire
And I wanna touch you with fingertips of flames
Mind games
I wanna kiss you
I wanna kiss you again
Again

Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I'm feeling good today
Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I've been a long, long way
Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I'm feeling good today
Good morning universe, how are you today?
Morning, morning universe, I've been a long, long way...
way...
